SECTION 2. APPLICABILITY OF EXEMPTIONS FROM PROVISIONS

Generally. Nothing in this article shall apply to sales conducted pursuant to statute or by order of any court, or to any person selling personal property at wholesale to dealers in such article or to any person selling personal property from their home if these sales do not exceed more than six (6) days per year. The licensing provisions of this article shall not apply to merchants having an established place of business within the Town of Ballston or their employees conducting the business of their employer; to resident farmers and truck gardeners who themselves or through their employees vend, sell or dispose of the products of their own farms or gardens; to party plans; to calls in response to a prior invitation; or to established religious, charitable or civic organizations established in the Town. This Ordinance shall not be construed to prevent route salesmen or other persons having established customers to whom they make periodic deliveries from calling upon such customers or from making calls upon prospective customers to solicit a request for future periodic route deliveries. This Ordinance shall not apply to children under the age of fourteen (14), nor to children selling or soliciting for school functions.

SECTION 3. LICENSE REQUIRED. It shall be unlawful for any person within the corporate limits of the Town of Ballston, to act as a vendor, hawker, peddler or solicitor as herein defined without first having obtained and paid for, and having in force and effect a license therefore.

SECTION 4. APPLICATION FOR LICENSE: BOND.

Any person desiring to procure a license as herein provided shall file with the Town Clerk a written application upon a form furnished by the Town Clerk.
